FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

YOUNGEST PERSON TO ROW SOLO ACROSS THE ATLANTIC IS A WOMAN!

Peace X Peace Features Her Voice

WASHINGTON, DC, APRIL 6, 2010: Peace X Peace features social change adventurer Katie Spotz, the youngest person ever to row solo across an ocean, in its newsletter's April edition, "Peace is Green." Spotz completed her trip in 70 days, 5 hours, and 22 minutes and has raised $81,056 for clean water projects to date.

In the interview with Peace X Peace staff writer Alicia Simoni, Spotz shares her fears and ambitions and reflects on the exponential impact an individual can have on the world. Check out the article in its entirety at <http://www.peacexpeace.org/2010/04/katie-spotz/>.

Spotz is just one of the many women, pushing their limits and challenging the odds, who are highlighted in the PeaceMedia on www.peacexpeace.org and who contribute to building a culture of peace on www.peacexpeacecommunity.ning.com.

Peace X Peace (pronounced Peace by Peace, www.peacexpeace.org) is a global network of women with women-focused e-media, fresh analysis, and from-the-frontlines perspectives. We engage, connect, and amplify women's voices as the most direct and powerful ways to create cultures of peace around the world.

Katie's voyage benefited the Blue Planet Run Foundation. To learn more about it, visit www.rowforwater.com.
